ARREST RECORDS MAY BE SWASTIKA BY F. B. GIANOTTI

All records for arrests seem likely to be broken by F. B. Gianotti, auto repairman and proprietor of the circus garage at Union avenue and Lumbkin street. He is in for a touch today, according to City Commissioner John B. Edgar, and City Building Inspector Dan C. Newton Saturday. As many days as Gianotti maintains the portable auto shops on Union, as many times will warrants for his arrest be issued, according to these officials.

Mayor Paine Saturday joined in the move to oust from what he termed a strictly residential locality, this alleged nuisance. He conferred at length with various officials about the matter and said that every move had been made to get rid of the shops.

Each day these shops are located at Union near Lumbkin constituted an offense, say the officials, who added Saturday that their presence was in strict variance with city ordinances alleged violations of which led to Gianotti's arrest late Friday afternoon on five warrants.

At noon Saturday Gianotti had not been arrested. However, Inspector Newton left City Hall shortly after the noon hour to visit the premises of Gianotti's residence and the repair shops on Union. He was expected to return with a report on the situation.

S. S. ASSOCIATION TO MEET NEAR OXFORD

TOCOPOLA, Miss., July 3. (Sp.)—Dr. A. W. Milden, of the university, president of the Lafayette County Sunday School association, called a meeting of the executive committee for the purpose of formulating plans for arranging a program for the annual meeting of the association on Tuesday, July 6, at the camp ground, two miles east of Oxford.

An unusually interesting program is being prepared and every Sunday school in the county is urged to send delegates. A cordial invitation has been extended to all Sunday school workers and others interested in Christian activities to be present. The exercises will continue throughout the day, dinner being served on the grounds at the noon hour.

ELABORATE PLANS MADE FOR CELEBRATION SUNDAY MORNING AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Elaborate preparations are being made by the congregation of St. Mary's church, Third street and Market avenue, for the celebration of the First Mass of Sunday morning, July 4, at 9 o'clock.

Father Lucian Trouy, O. F. M., known to many who play during the summer at St. Louis, at St. Anthony's church by Rt. Rev. John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis.

For the past three years, Father Lucian has been celebrating the first Mass at St. Mary's church, at the residence of the late Father O. F. M., of Indianapolis, who died last year.

Little Miss Mary Louise McPhillips, dressed as a bride, will carry the crown of roses on a white satin pillow, symbolic of the church, the sponsor of the celebration.

At the conclusion of the service, Father Lucian will bless the congregation, after which he will receive the congratulations of his parishioners.

DEMOCRATS FOR COX AND EDWARDS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—President Wilson, in a telegram to National Chairman Homer S. Cummings, which was read today to the convention, declared that the course the Democratic party had taken with respect to the issue of human liberty and the justice of law, that promise was deliberately renewed when we entered the great war for human freedom, and we now keep faith with those who died in Flanders field to redeem it. That I should have been accorded leadership in such great matters fills my heart with gratitude and pride and the course the party has taken fills me with a perfect confidence that it will go from victory to victory until the traditions of the republic are vindicated.

It was with the most grateful appreciation that I received the message from the convention to kindly transmit it to the members of the party who are in the field. It is a source of pride with me to receive such an evidence of the confidence of the great party which derives its principles direct and untainted from the founders of our government, and the authors of our liberty.

While our opponents are endeavoring to isolate us among the nations of the world, we are following the vision of the founders of the republic who promised the world the counsel and leadership of the free people of the United States in all matters that affected human liberty and the justice of law. That promise was deliberately renewed when we entered the great war for human freedom, and we now keep faith with those who died in Flanders field to redeem it.

When it was announced from the platform that even the crowd could feel a delegation that it presented him with a bouquet of red flowers that a horse could not eat in a day.

Gov. Smith of New York, admits that he did not hear any of the demonstration for him. He was very comfortable and did not feel the heat of the atmosphere at the time, however.

Senator Dubois is out strongly for the overall movement. In a mad rush to get here he failed to transfer the tax bandits in the lobby.

A second edition of Aunt Jemina of old Virginia in a gallery yelled herself out of her seat and ran down the aisle to the front of the hall.

This was a great day for 10 kids who hung around the exterior of the hall with nothing to do. First an opponent of McAdoo gave them $20 for a drink and a minute later a McAdoo supporter gave them $10 to throw a brick in a sewer.

Janitors and special officers had to drive delegates from the hall after the early adjournment. Feet are getting wet and the rain is coming down.

NEW YORK SPLITS

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 3.—With the sixth ballot completed without any nominee being selected and indications while the seventh ballot was under way that little change in lineup would result, the Democrats assembled here in national convention this afternoon were settling themselves for a long session of balloting. During the calling of the seventh ballot New York caucused and a break to Cox from the delegation was forecast.

The first big break in the solid delegations came on the seventh ballot, when the New York delegation of 90 swung away from Gov. Smith and gave 68 to Cox, 16 to McAdoo and scattered its other votes. Delegates working against McAdoo kicked up a great demonstration in which the standards of New Jersey, Indiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and Maryland joined. It was the first demonstration of a slide to anybody.

New Jersey also broke to Cox, throwing him 25 from the block that had been cast solidly for Edwards. The New York delegation hall into a tumult again. "He'll beat Harding in Ohio," was the cry that rang through the convention hall. Three of New Jersey's votes went to McAdoo.

Following the completion of the sixth ballot, the fourth ballot today, the delegates got a welcome chance to stretch their legs while the big pipe organ played a tenor soloist sang, "Dear Old Pal of Mine." The real reason for the recess was to give several delegates an opportunity to caucus and decide what they would do on the seventh ballot.

All three of the leaders at the beginning of the seventh were stronger in votes than they had been at any time since the balloting began, Palmer having more than picked up his loss of the fifth ballot.

The sixth ballot result as officially announced follows: Total vote cast, 1,090. McAdoo 368 1/2, Cox 195, Palmer 265, Cummings 20, Owen 36, Smith 96, Edwards 30, Davis 29, Glass 27, Marshall 13, Clark 7, Colby 1.

With the third ballot the first new nominees, the final act of the convention, which has been in session six days, began to take shape. The delegates, who had been in session six days, began to take shape.

McADOO BACKERS HOPING FOR COX

EXPERT ASSESS "Can't Beat Somebody With Nobody" Applies to Opponents While Former Secretary's Supporters Know What They Want.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE, (Special Correspondent of The News-Sentinel.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The old political adage, "You can't beat somebody with nobody," applies directly to the situation in which the forces opposed to the nomination of McAdoo found themselves this morning.

We've stopped on the way, the whispered assurance from the Palmer scouts, who are out in the lobbies keeping up the clamor of their supporters. Somewhat the same thought proceeds from Cox people, who talk vaguely about a combination of New York, Illinois, Indiana and Massachusetts which will surely stop McAdoo's nomination.

But on the inside, where the leaders of all the booms foregather, another situation exists. Every one of the McAdoo people have a few politicians and strategists in their ranks, and rather than the situation in which the forces opposed to the nomination of McAdoo found themselves this morning.
